From Uniformity with God's Will by St. Alphonsus de Liguori

4. It is especially necessary that we be resigned in corporal infirmities. We should willingly embrace them in the manner and for the length of time that God wills. We ought to make use of the ordinary remedies in time of sickness -- such is God's will; but if they are not effective, let us unite ourselves to God's will and this will be better for us than would be our restoration to health. Let us say: "Lord, I wish neither to be well nor to remain sick; I want only what thou wilt." Certainly, it is more virtuous not to repine in times of painful illness; still and all, when our sufferings are excessive, it is not wrong to let our friends know what we are enduring, and also to ask God to free us from our sufferings. Let it be understood, however, that the sufferings here referred to are actually excessive. It often happens that some, on the occasion of a slight illness, or even a slight indisposition, want the whole world to stand still and sympathize with them in their illnesses. But where it is a case of real suffering, we have the example of our Lord, who, at the approach of his bitter passion, made known his state of soul to his disciples, saying: "My soul is sorrowful even unto death" and besought his eternal Father to deliver him from it: "Father, if it be possible, let this chalice pass from me." But our Lord likewise taught us what we should do when we have made such a petition, when he added: "Nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt." How childish the pretense of those who protest they wish for health not to escape suffering, but to serve our Lord better by being able to observe their Rule, to serve the community, go to church, receive Communion, do penance, study, work for souls in the confessional and pulpit! Devout soul, tell me, why do you desire to do these things? To please God? Why then search any further to please God when you are sure God does not wish these prayers, Communions, penances or studies, but he does wish that you suffer patiently this sickness he sends you? Unite then your sufferings to those of our Lord... Do we want to please God? When we find ourselves confined to our sickbed, let us utter this one prayer: "Thy will be done." (This book continues. Greetings from the Parish Office!

We are planning a Pasta Dinner for Sunday, August 20 in Columbia Hall to help with parish expenses– both our latest repairs, and our accumulated debt. You can help us by donating the following items: Pasta– regular spaghetti noodles or rigatoni; sauces, grated parmesan cheese; or bottled water. You may also make a monetary donation to cover other expenses for the dinner by placing it in an envelop marked “Pasta Dinner” and putting it in the collection basket. We appreciate any support you are able to offer!

This week's cover photo is our baptismal font which was purchased for the 100th anniversary of the parish in 1956. It is a beautiful portrayal of our Savior in glorious white, and so fitting to help us contemplate His Transfiguration.
