Greetings from the Parish Office!

Our cover photo this week is Rembrandt's famous painting The return of the Prodigal Son. He completed this great work around 1662, and it is considered by many to be the greatest painting ever made. This encounter with such an inspiring image, as well as the hopeful liturgy of Laetare Sunday reminds us to rejoice that Our Father welcomes us back with an abundance of love. We can take this new hope and persevere 3 more weeks with our penances, acts of charity and multiplied prayers until Easter!

As we get closer to Holy Week, we would like to remind you that the Knights of Columbus Baby Bottles will be collected on Palm Sunday. Note that there will be special liturgies and devotions during Holy Week as listed on the facing page. Another special event to remember will be the Blessing of Easter Baskets and foods (eggs, meats, butter, cheese, wine, baked goods, salt...) on Holy Saturday at 12 noon in Columbia Hall. Finally, our next Holy Ghost Café Breakfast will be on Palm Sunday, March 24 following the 9:00 am Mass.

At this time the parish welcomes monetary donations for Easter flowers that will decorate the church. You can include the name of a loved one in memorial dedication with your donation.

CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS FOR TAXES

HOW SHOULD WE ACT WHEN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT IS EXPOSED ON THE ALTAR?

During these years when our American bishops are reminding us of the inestimable value of Christ's Real Presence in the Blessed Eucharist, our priests are trying in many ways to help us deepen our love for this great Sacrament. For the past few weeks here at St. Alphonsus, upon entering the church before our weekend Masses, the Blessed Sacrament has been exposed upon the altar for our Adoration. The Church's rubrics for this devotion are very specific:

GENUFLECTION ON ONE KNEE UPON ENTERING OUR PEW OR PASSING IN FRONT OF THE MONSTRANCE OR, FOR THOSE OF US WHO ARE OLDER, A PROFOUND BOW IS ACCEPTABLE.

ABSOLUTE SILENCE IN THE PRESENCE OF OUR LORD IN THE MONSTRANCE.

This means, of course, that we are being reminded to avoid the temptation to chat with friends in the sanctuary. In fact, whether the Blessed Sacrament is exposed or not, it is always impolite to carry on a running conversation in the church while waiting for a liturgy to begin. It is a suitable time to greet the Lord in prayer and allow those around us to do the same. Not that our dear friends should be neglected. It is simply the proper practice to meet our dear friends outside the sanctuary before or after Mass. There is a right time and place for conversation with Jesus, and a time and place for conversation with each other. May this extended time with Our Lord in His Blessed Sacrament enliven your faith and bring you special blessings as we continue the Lenten journey.
