From: UNIFORMITY WITH GOD'S WILL by St. Alphonsus de Liguori

1. Excellence of this Virtue...

Our Redeemer came on earth to glorify his heavenly Father and to teach us by his example how to do the same. St. Paul represents him saying to his eternal Father: "Sacrifice and oblation thou wouldst not: But a body thou hast fitted to me . . . Then said I: Behold I come to do thy will, O God." Thou hast refused the victims offered thee by man; thou dost will that I sacrifice my body to thee. Behold me ready to do thy will. Our Lord frequently declared that he had come on earth not to do his own will, but solely that of his Father: "I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him that sent me." He spoke in the same strain in the garden when he went forth to meet his enemies who had come to seize him and to lead him to death: "But that the world may know that I love the Father: and as the Father hath given me commandment, so do I; arise and let us go hence." Furthermore, he said he would recognize as his brother, him who would do his will:

"Whosoever shall do the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother." To do God's will -- this was the goal upon which the saints constantly fixed their gaze. They were fully persuaded that in this consists the entire perfection of the soul. Blessed Henry Suso used to say: "It is not God's will that we should abound in spiritual delights, but that in all things we should submit to his holy will." "Those who give themselves to prayer," says St. Teresa, "should concentrate solely on this: the conformity of their wills with the divine will. They should be convinced that this constitutes their highest perfection. The more fully they practice this, the greater the gifts they will receive from God, and the greater the progress they will make in the interior life."

SUNDAY, MAY 14

Sixth Sunday of Easter Mass @ 9:00 am
Happy Mother's Day!

MONDAY, MAY 15

St. Isadore (1070-1130) from Madrid, Spain is the patron saint of farmers and rural communities. He was married to Maria de la Cabeza who also became a canonized saint. They lived a simple life of prayer, daily Mass, and farm work. They had one child who died very young. People in the eastern United States consider this date a safe day to plant vegetables and herb outdoors for the spring growing season.

St. Isadore, Pray for Us!
