Greetings from the Parish Office!

This week's cover photo is a 1740's painting of Saint Blaize that hangs in the Maria Troist Church (Consolation of Mary) in Rohrbach-berg, Austria. It is customary for parishes to offer the "Blessing of Throats" on his Feast Day because this Saint is said to have saved a young boy from choking on a fish-bone at the pleading of his mother, as Blaize was arrested and being led to prison. In this particular piece of art, he is shown holding a crosier because he was a bishop. Sometimes he is depicted with a wolf or other animals because he is said to have cured many domestic and wild animals while in hiding during the persecution during the reign of Licinius. Most commonly, St. Blaize can be identified as holding a candle because the grateful mother of the boy saved from choking is said to have brought a candle along with some food to Blaize while he was confined. In appreciation for her courage and kindness, Blaize is said to have asked this woman to light a candle in his honor every year on the memorial of his martyrdom, and that she and anyone else who piously upheld the tradition would be blessed with prosperity. Sometimes in artwork, St. Blaize is holding an iron felting comb (an instrument of his martyrdom) or a chalice—symbolizing a vision he had of our Lord on the night before his death in which Jesus appeared in his cell and asked Blaize to "drink of My cup" which meant that he was asked to suffer death for the Faith. We can be inspired and comforted by the example and intercession of St. Blaize!
