Greetings from the Parish Office!

This week's cover photo is the statue of the Sacred Heart of Montmartre which the parish houses in Columbia Hall. It was originally located at the Mount de Chantal Visitation Academy. Jesus is depicted in His glorified body with the marks of the wounds of His crucifixion visible. His arms are open wide and His heart is in flames of love and forgiveness. The Gospel message this weekend reminds us that Our Lord's unconditional love and forgiveness is available to us only when we have hearts striving to forgive unconditionally.

Please stop by our lending library for some really great material for evening reads as the summer days shorten!

Please pray for:
